Headline:
Rather cloudy and breezy.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining cloudy across northern areas with outbreaks of rain arriving into Cumbria towards dawn. Greater chance of clear spells developing in the south, where it will turn chilly, especially in rural spots. Breezy. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Generally rather cloudy but some bright spells in the south. Outbreaks of rain continuing for Cumbria, this slowly dying out in the evening. Winds easing through the day. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Largely settled through the week, but on the cloudy side with limited bright spells in the afternoon. A risk of morning fog under cloud breaks. Feeling slightly cooler by Friday.
